AROUND THE HOUSE

When you set aside your knitting or crocheting, slip a knifing pin through the last loop to keep the yarn or thread from unraveling.

To keep candles firm and steady in their holders, insert a little melted paraffin wax just before inserting the candles.

If your shower curtain flaps around when you're showering, pin or sew fish line weights to its bottom edge.

When damp air causes your envelopes to glue themselves shut, freeze them for a few hours, then slide a table knife under the flaps. The glue will still be good.

You can sharpen dull needles by running them through an emery cloth.

BETHEL TAXPAYERS ASSESSED

$100+ IN 1971 LISTED

The annual listing of Bethel taxpayers assessed a total of over $100 for the current year appears on page two. Although gleaned from official records, these figures are unofficial and are published for the convenience and curiosity of our readers.

COMMENTS FROM THE OFFICE OF THE TOWN MANAGER

The selectmen, at their Monday night meeting, considered a request to plow the sidewalk all the way up Broad Street to the intersection of Paradise Road. No action was taken as they would like the reaction of more residents of the area.

The application for a liquor license made by the Sudbury Inn was signed. Also two new appointments were made to the Planning Board. Dana Douglass was nominated as a regular member, John Anderson as an associate.

We have the checks made out for the firemen. Anyone who feels they have pay due them can contact the office. Those who do not come in to pick them up will receive it in the mail next week. There are several members that we need the Social Security numbers from.

Taxpayers who wish to avoid the interest penalty should again be reminded interest commences Dec. 1, retroactive to Oct. 1.

ASCS CONTINUES AS ECONOMIC STABILIZATION PROGRAM INFORMATION CENTERS

Oxford County residents can get official information on Phase II of President Nixon's economic stabilization program at the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service Office, says Beverly T. Dean, the County Executive Director.

"As the nation enters Phase II, ASCS County Offices along with the Internal Revenue Service will continue to provide public information at the local level," Mrs. Dean said.

The county ASCS Office will receive regular updated information from the President's cost of living council, price commission, and pay board.

Residents calling or visiting the county office about a wage price problem, will get answers on the spot if the questions fall within existing guidelines.

More complex questions will be forwarded by county office personnel to the nearest IRS office for reply.

"We are not authorized to handle complaints, violations and requests for exemptions, but we will forward them to the IRS District headquarters office," Mrs. Dean explained.

Mrs. Dean also said that the name of anyone filing a complaint or violation will be kept confidential.

Any questions that cannot be answered by ASCS or interpreted by the IRS District office will be forwarded for higher level action. The person making the inquiry will be informed if this action is taken.

Details on procedures for appealing decisions also are available upon request.

The County ASCS Office located at 26 Market Square, South Paris, Maine, is open from 8 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. The telephone number is 743-2641.

SUNDAY RIVER SKI AREA TO OPEN ON MAN-MADE SNOW THIS COMING WEEK END

Sunday River Ski Area will open for skiing on man made snow this week end, according to Josef Gmeunder, general manager.

Mr. Gmeunder originally planned to have skiing on Thanksgiving Day, but due to weather conditions he cannot produce sufficient snow cover by Thursday. He is aiming for Saturday or Sunday as opening day.

Man made snow will cover the Mixing Bowl, a novice and intermediate area which is 2600 feet long. The slope is serviced by a tandem T-bar with a capacity of one thousand skiers per hour. Snow conditions are available by calling 1-800-442-6070.

BETHEL HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO MEET DECEMBER 2

The Bethel Historical Society will meet Thursday, Dec. 2, at 7:30 p. m. in the Casco Bank community room. Members are asked to bring any item of antique vintage that was used for holidays and their preparation. Refreshments will be served.

The food sale held recently at the Bethel IGA Store was a most successful venture. Appreciation is expressed to Dave Olson, owner, for the use of space in his store. The beautifully decorated cake donated by Leona Flint was won by Mrs. Joan Parker. All are thanked for their participation and patronage.

The tiles of Androscoggin River Bridge are still available at Mrs. Grover's on Elm Street. They make a nice gift for Christmas.

HEALTH COUNCIL SEEKS

POTENTIAL TRAINEES

The Bethel Area Health Council is currently applying for a federal grant to train a team of six people from the greater Bethel area for a drug abuse prevention program. A representative from the Woodstock area and from the Andover area is needed on this team. ROUND MOUNTAIN GRANGE #162

At our installation meeting, Nov. 1, 74 people attended, including 20 Round Mountaineers. Looks as though we are "getting off the dime" so to speak, and putting Round Mountain on the map . . . again. There is even rumor that we may have a Degree Team! If even a little of Worthy Master Bud Horton's enthusiasm rubs off on the rest of the officers, we should have a good one.

Brother Chester Hayes, Deputy from New Hampshire, and his staff, conducted the installation, and did a most commendable job. Installed were the following: M. L. C. Horton; O. Harry Buswell; S. Malcolm Gould; A. S. Paul Buswell; L. Leah Deegan; C. Jessamine Gould; S. Mary Rice; T. Daisy Kimball; C. Mary Mills; F. Marguerite Spinney; P. Elsie Ames; G. K. Kenneth Ames; L. A. S. Al-lison Buswell; Ex. C., 3 years, Ivy Philbrook.

The Nov. 15 meeting was a 3 point meeting, with Round Mountain serving the supper, South Paris filling the chairs and Bear River putting on a very good program. 59 members attended, including 20 Junior members from South Paris. We draped the Charter in memory of Sister Imogene Kimball.

Dec. 4, there will be a public supper at Bear Mountain Grange Hall, to provide new regalia, and a food and candy sale to help Santa Claus. Come!

COUNCIL COMMENTS

Last Wednesday Ross Swain, Randy Littlefield and Mike Davis (all from the junior class) went to the Classroom Quiz show. These boys were selected from ten juniors and seniors whose names were given to the council by the faculty, as possible candidates for the show. All of the 16 students took a written test which covered many varying subjects and then a "mock" show was taped with the audio-visual equipment. After viewing this "show" the ten students voted for those who they each thought did the best. Mike, Ross and Randy met these students from Winslow. The show will be aired some time in the near future.

Thursday, the 18th, a slave auction was held during activity period—students from the freshmen class and the Spanish Club were auctioned off to the highest bidder. The highest bidder of all was awarded his or her slave(s) for an extra day. Last year something similar was done. As the saying goes—good, clean fun never hurt anybody.

Randy Littlefield and I went to Monmouth last week to another Mountain Valley Conference meeting between Student Councils. We again talked over mutual problems and we hope to meet with the principals of the schools at our next meeting in January.

The Senior High Student Council, at the request of the Junior High Council, has decided to ask a junior council member to sit in as an "observer" member and vice-versa, in the hopes of gaining insight to problems and situations involving the junior and senior high schools. I wish you all a happy and "stuffed" Thanksgiving. — Roberta Crozier

GREENWOOD CITY

Mrs. Callie Morgan, Corres.

Today I took the bulldozer road to the farm fields; my first trip there since the falling of the leaves which now made a crunch, under my feet.

The gloss of apples polished to a perfect redness still hung to some of the trees.

As I climbed higher I looked to the mountains, clear with lofty foreheads held high. Overset Bluff more than ever looked like a huge elephant at rest. Without leaves the gray sides were clearly visible and I thought of our trip there in October. In the far distance another mountain was dressed in white. Tree tops stood out like dark lace against the blue sky with a cloud puff here and there above the sparkle of the pond in its winter cloak.

One thin blue-gray spiral of smoke showed clearly as it rose from the farm chimney.

Occasionally I saw a quiet little pool which had frozen in magical stillness transforming the pathway into something unexpected and enchanting.

Again I looked out over all the homesteads stretching to the sky, here and there were stunted spruces, tussocks of grass and rocks with dark and various shapes.

Somewhere on valiant wings the blue jay cried from out the wilderness. No doubt he had discovered me and was uttering his warning to all others of his area.

The dried grasses swayed while above, the oaks trembled, touched by the breezes and I listened for the lost melody among their clinging leaves. Behind me on the ground came the rattle of leaves racing, speeding on by while the "textured" of the milkweed filled the air and skated on the ice.

Near a rock a large tunnel was made down into the earth. It was much too big for a woodchuck so clever fox must have been there. With my arm full of evergreens I arrived home and was greeted by my family of chickadees. Their feather wings lifted and spread and as if on a breath they flitted from feeder to tree.

I looked to the west where the glow would soon die as the sun dipped behind the hills rimming the valley. Darkness falls so swiftly now that soon all around us would be the dark trees. Then only twinkling stars would be seen in this valley which lies in the heart of the countryside.

Mrs. Clyde Morgan attended the meeting of retired teachers in Rumford on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Mills, Shapleigh, were at the Frazee Mills cottage over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holt and Danny, Bangor, were at Mr. and Mrs. Leonas Holt's over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morris were at their cottage at Azisocopa Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Millett had as callers this week: Mrs. Mary Emery and Denise, Mrs. Elaine Emery and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Pierce, West Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Millett and family attended a birthday party for Jeffery Coffin Wednesday evening at West Paris.

Billy Silver and Brenda Millett are the latest chicken pox victims. Mrs. Roland Hayes was in Lewiston this week to visit her son, Ardell, who was a patient at the C. M. G. Hospital.

Donna Morgan, Bryant Pond, Ann Holt and Fay Holt, were in Portland on Saturday.

Mrs. Delphina Cox is spending some time with her daughter, Joan Morgan, after surgery at Osteopathic Hospital in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cotton were Sunday guests of her parents in Windham for an early Thanksgiving.

On Saturday morning we saw an otter on the ice in front of our house. It moved around for a short time then dropped into a hole and disappeared.

Thanksgiving time again. We need be like the Pilgrims when they said thanksgiving prayers.

Our custom will become more precious.

With our gratitude as deep as theirs. Doris Connell

Any November day could be Thanksgiving! A happy one to you.
